

Quinebarge Times – March 2007

Top of the Mornin' to Ya...

Hope everyone is having a great beginning to 2007! Winter, snow, ice, cold... we've had an interesting winter so far, hope yours has been great!

Registrations continue to come in... do we have yours yet?!?!?!? Send in registrations now, as weeks will start to fill up soon!

Some great news from Ethan Bickford... he's going to be a big brother!!! We're very excited about the addition to the family and can't wait for the new arrival! Remember, get those registrations in now so you can witness pregnant Nancy waddling around camp this summer!!

Refer a friend to camp and receive $500 off your tuition to Camp Quinebarge! Your account will be credited once your friend sends in their registration!

Medical Forms

Great news... if you had a green medical form filled out last year (2006) for camp, you are all set for this year. New green medical forms will need to be completed by all campers every other year.

REMINDER: All new campers need medical forms and physicals this year!

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND 2007

Looking for a family weekend get-a-way? Come to camp for the weekend and enjoy the beautiful spring weather of the Lakes Region.

Reserve your cabin now as the word is out and lots of family's are interested. The ropes course and climbing wall will be open, basketball and volleyball games, plan some great field activities or enjoy the waterfront and boating. Plan on and off camp hikes and adventures too!
