

Quinebarge Times – October 2006

Happy Haunting Camp Q Goers....
 I heard from quite a few people regarding dates for the 2007 camp season. Sorry for those of you that went to the website looking for the information, it was unable to be posted... hopefully we'll be adding info up there soon!
 Well, the dates have been sent, now it's time to start sending in your registration for 2007... don't forget, you can save money with early registration!!!

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND 2007

It's never too early to start planning, that's why we're letting you know about next spring now!
 Looking for a family weekend get-a-way? Come to camp for the weekend and enjoy the beautiful spring weather of the Lakes Region. More information will be coming in the future newsletters, but put aside the date now!

Campers, CIT's, JC's...

where do we go from here?!

Again this fall I have been getting a number of phone calls and emails from former campers, CIT's and JC's asking about next summer and whether they will be a camper, CIT or JC.

There are so many people that are wanting to be all of these things that we are going to have to have an application process as other camps do. A reminder that campers are 7-15 years old, CIT's are 16 years old and JC's have completed a year as a CIT and are 17 years old. Special consideration may be given in rare circumstances to break out of these guidelines listed. If you would like to be considered as a CIT or JC, please contact Nancy for an application. If you will be 15 next summer, please register for camp as a camper.

This is the area that we will post news from YOU!
 Send in something NOW!!!!
 I'm still waiting to get more news from everyone!
 Please send some stuff to share!
