REFUNDS

Registration fees are not returned to campers in the event of withdrawal from camp. After the start of camp, tuition will not be refunded unless withdrawal is recommended by the camp doctor. However, we recognize the necessity for good faith in dealing with our camp families. For premature camper departure other than that recommended by the camp doctor, we will do the best to fill that space and to return a prorated portion of the camp tuition, only if we are able to fill that space. For purpose of this policy, the camper is considered to be enrolled on July 1.
